

Bio

Adri Vinchira is a music producer, song writer and visual creator; born in Colombia, raised in Spain and based in Belgium.

Her music combines elements of synth pop, electro rock and hip hop, and is always full of energetic rhythms, and colorful melodies.

Having started her musical life in mid 2000 being part of a spanish hip hop label, she turned to audiovisual creation, embracing video art, and sound art.

She was invited to present her projects in different art venues, as Icarus Art in Toronto, Canada; Ars Electronica in Linz, Austria; Casa de Vacas in Madrid, Spain; Visualkontaktin Cluj, Romania; or START in Olbia, Italy.

After that period she started being focused in electronic music, and she created a duo project, releasing in 2019 an EP named "Balloon".

Currently she have finished her new solo project: A five songs EP named "Arqueología", in wich she has gathered all her different creative experiences.

Released Singles

